“O God, by the leading of a star you manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth....”
Folks who claim to know inform us that the journey of the Magi, perhaps astrologers or astrologists, probably began two years prior to their arrival at the site of “the dear Saviour’s birth”. That’s determination; that’s commitment.

The story is told about the farmer whose management of the farm was so bad that he was in danger of losing it. Yet he was very considerate and kind to his animals, who, in their desire to come to his aid, consulted among themselves and decided to prepare a meal and sell tickets. The pig asks, “What shall we serve?” The chicken answered, “Why, eggs and bacon, of course”. “For you, that is a contribution”, responded the pig, “for me, that’s real commitment.”

Thus the prayer for the Epiphany continues, “Lead us, who know you by faith, to your presence, where we may see your glory face to face....” In the manner of those dauntless Magi, our mission of real commitment is to keep our eyes fixed on the Certain Star which is Jesus Christ and who leads us as we travel along life’s way.

Faithfully yours in our Lord, +Dorsey

For the Unity of the Church

O God the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace: Give us seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A Prayer of Preparation

I am not worthy, Master and Lord, that thou shouldst come beneath the roof of my soul: yet, since thou in thy love toward all dost wish to dwell in me, in boldness I come. Thou commandest, Open the gates—which thou alone hast forged; and thou wilt come in with love as is thy nature; thou wilt come in and enlighten my darkened reasoning. I believe that thou wilt do this: for thou didst not send away the harlot who came to thee with tears; nor cast out the repenting publican; nor reject the thief who acknowledged thy kingdom; nor forsake the repentant persecutor, a yet greater act; but all those who came to thee in repentance, didst thou count in the band of thy friends, who alone abidest blessed forever, now, and unto the endless ages. Amen.

St. John Chrysostom, c. 347-407

Spiritual Communion

In Union, dear Lord, with the faithful at every altar of thy Church where thy blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father, I desire to offer thee praise and thanksgiving. I believe that thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament. And since I cannot now receive thee sacramentally, I beseech thee to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself unto thee, and embrace thee with all the affections of my soul. Let me never be separated from thee. Let me live and die in thy love. Amen.

CALENDAR OF INTERCESSIONS
CONFRATERNITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENTTHE DAILY PRAYER

O Almighty God, look we beseech Thee, on the Face of Thy beloved Son, and for the sake of His merits mercifully hear the prayers which, throughout our Confraternity, we continually offer to Thee, especially (for) and grant us unity, a true faith, and a life agreeable to Thy Will, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2. To make, at every Celebration, one or more of the following Acts - Of Faith. Of Thanksgiving. Of Adoration. Of Reparation. Of Spiritual Communion. Of Intercession. Of Prayer for the Visible Unity of Christendom.
3. To make Acts of Spiritual Communion frequently, especially when deprived of the opportunity of receiving the HOLY EUCHARIST.
4. To make Offerings for the due and reverent Celebration of the HOLY EUCHARIST.

CONSTITUTION

The Confraternity of the BLESSED SACRAMENT of the BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST shall consist of Bishops, Priests, Deacons, and Communicants of both sexes who are practicing Catholics and members of, or in Communion with, the Episcopal Church.

FRIDAY... In reparation for All Dishonor to Our Lord through carelessness or lack of preparation or Thanksgiving... O LORD, Jesus Christ, Who hast willed to abide with us always in this Wonderful Sacrament, thus ever glorifying Thy Father by the Memorial of Thy Passion, and giving unto us the Food of Life, grant us grace to grieve with a hearty sorrow for the insults offered this holy Mystery, and to repair, so far as lies in our power and with sincere love, the many dishonors Thou still continuest to receive in this Holy Sacrament, Who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost, One God, world without end. Amen.

SATURDAY... For the teaching and acceptance of Eucharistic Worship throughout the Church... O GOD, Who in a Wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a Memorial of Thy Passion, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to worship the Sacred Mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruit of Thy redemption who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, world without end. Amen.

OBITUARY

On Monday, or another convenient day each week, please pray for the souls of the faithful departed especially:

The Rev. B. Linford Eyrick William P. Zachar, Sr.

O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of thy servants. . . , and grant them an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Please remember the sick, the infirm and those who have asked our prayers, especially:

Doris Willoughby, Frankie Hodges, Jan Carter, Linda Welch

SUNDAY... In Thanksgiving - for opportunities of Eucharistic worship and Holy Communion... O ALMIGHTY GOD, Who hast promised to hear the prayers of Thy people who call upon Thee in the name of Thy Blessed Son, mercifully accept the Thanksgivings, which throughout the Confraternity, we offer to Thee. And we pray that Thy blessing may rest upon us forevermore, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MONDAY... For our associates - that all may be Missionaries and with charity may witness to Confraternity principles . O ALMIGHTY AND ETERNAL GOD, we humbly pray Thee to vouchsafe Thy blessing to this Confraternity that all the Associates may earnestly strive to promote the honor due to Thy dear Son, Jesus Christ, in the Blessed Sacrament of His Body and Blood, and grant that, persevering unto the end in the faith, practice and communion of Thy Holy Church, we may all at length attain everlasting life, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TUESDAY... For the Blessed Sacrament reserved in all Cathedrals, Churches and Chapels... O GOD, Who in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar dost in a special manner fulfill Thy promise to be with Thy people until the end of the world, increase the ancient practice of the Reservation of this Holy Mystery, that our Priests may at all times be able to minister the same to the sick and dying, and Thy faithful people to adore and worship Thee, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, One God, world without end. Amen.

WEDNESDAY... For greater Observance of Catholic Discipline... O GOD, Who wonderfully refreshest Thy Church by Thy Precious Body and Blood, pour out upon it Thy Quickening Spirit, that, living upon Thee on earth through partaking of the Heavenly Mysteries, we may attain to live with Thee in Heaven; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, One God, world without end. Amen.

THURSDAY... For the Confraternity, all members, wards and officers O LORD, make us, we beseech Thee, to be fulfilled with the everlasting fruition of Thy Godhead; whereof the receiving of Thy Precious Body and Blood in this life is both a figure and a pledge, Who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, world without end. Amen.

Act of Contrition

My God, I firmly believe that you are present, and I humbly adore you in union with the angels and saints. I love you with my whole heart and above all things. I heartily detest my sins and I am truly sorry that I have offended you because you are infinitely good. I offer you all that I am and all that I have—my soul with all its faculties, my body with all its senses. Enlighten my understanding and inflame my will that I may know and do what is pleasing to you.

Forgive me for Jesus' sake, and I will try to sin no more and by the help of your Grace amend my life. I beseech you to direct all the powers of my soul, all my thoughts and affections to your service and glory as well as to my own sanctification. May I learn to love you without ceasing and make it my delight to do in all things your most holy will. Amen
